4	5 Decorate your home in red, white and blue. Learn what those colors represent.	6 Talk about what makes our country different from others.	7 Learn about the Declaration of Independence. Read it!	8 Listen to a kid-friendly podcast about our country's history.	9 Learn about an ancestor who fought for our country. Find a way to honor them.	10 Visit a national or state park this weekend-- or make plans to visit one this summer.
11 Find a way to serve your community this week.	12 Start a running list of freedoms you're grateful for and post them on your fridge.	13 Tomorrow is Flag Day. Learn about what the stars and stripes represent.	14 Happy Flag Day! Fly a flag from dawn until dusk.	15 Write thank you notes to elected officials you appreciate.	16 Visit a veteran you know or send a care package to vets serving abroad.	17 Take your family on a tour of your town. Point out government buildings, monuments, landmarks, etc.
18 Would you pass the U.S. citizenship test? Take an online practice test to find out.	19 It's Juneteenth! Learn what that means and discuss freedoms and inequality in America.	20 Do you know the platform for our two major political parties? If not, look them up!	21 Plan a patriotic craft you can do with your family.	22 Call or write an email to your member of Congress about an issue you care about.	23 Sign up to volunteer on a campaign for someone on an upcoming ballot or sign up to be a poll worker.	24 Visit a historical site or museum. If there's not one near you, visit one virtually.
25 Listen to patriotic music all week long!	26 Watch a movie or documentary on our country's founding.	27 Recite the Pledge of Allegiance and talk about what it means.	28 Learn all the verses of the Star Spangled Banner.	29 Are you registered to vote? Has your polling location changed? Check your status.	30 What's a political issue you are passionate about? Research the other side in an attempt to understand.	1 Plan your 4th celebrations with your family. Besides food and fireworks, how else can you celebrate?
2 Did you know TODAY is the actual anniversary of declaring independence? Learn what happened on the Fourth.	3 Make an extra effort today to pray for our country & leaders.	  4 Independence Day!
